Album 27 Song 3

Song 3 Sustain Me, O Lord

Psalm 109 – Shift from imprecation to personal plea. The psalmist, poor and needy, asks God to uphold him by His name and deliver him by His mercy.

Sustain me by Your name, O Jesus,
Deliver me by Your mercy, O Lord.

I am poor and needy, my heart is pierced within,
I fade away like a shadow, tossed like a locust in the wind.

Sustain me by Your name, O Jesus,
Deliver me by Your mercy, O Lord.

My knees are weak from fasting, my flesh wastes away,
I have become a reproach; they shake their heads at me each day.

Sustain me by Your name, O Jesus,
Deliver me by Your mercy, O Lord.

Help me with Your right hand, deliver me by Your grace,
Bless me even when they curse, let them be clothed with their own disgrace.

Let Your servant rejoice, let my enemies be put to shame,
I will praise You with my mouth and glorify Your holy name.

Help me with Your right hand, deliver me by Your grace,

Bless me even when they curse, let them be clothed with their own disgrace.
Sustain me by Your name, O Jesus,
Deliver me by Your mercy, O Lord.
